Dear Comrades,

VAAZTHUKKAL THAMIZHAGAM CONGRATS AND ACCOLADES TO TEAM TAMILNADU

The Valedictory Function of our Platinum Jubilee Celebrations was held at Kamarajar Arangam, Chennai on 10th May 2026 in an enviable manner with a mammoth participation of nearly 1500 comrades from all parts of the country, right from Sikkim to Gujarat and Jammu to Kanyakumari. The programme was a grand success.

The credit for the success of the Valedictory Function of our Platinum Jubilee Celebrations goes to the team of our State Committee Tamilnadu, led by Com M Naveen Kumar (Chairman) and Com R Karthik (State Secretary). The Tamilnadu team of our beloved organisation, with unwavering resolve and dedication elevated an event into an experience. It was not a one-day event since they had to work for nearly five days, as the CC Meeting of CBEU was held on 7th and 8th, the Honouring of Former All India Office Bearers Meeting on 9th and the Valedictory Function on 10th May.

NEVER SLEPT – EVER AWAKE

The hard work done by the comrades of Tamilnadu, especially our Chennai comrades exhibiting unbridled enthusiasm were exceedingly excellent. Words fail to appreciate their distinctive involvement.

They were on their toes right from 6th May, the team led by Com M Naveen Kumar took charge of receiving the leaders and comrades at Airport/Railway Station and transportation to the venue was done hassle free without any inconvenience. The entire leadership, both former and present lauded the deep rooted commitment of the volunteer comrades at Railway Station/Airport, The team of Volunteer Comrades Vasanth, Sudhir, Prince, Arun, Manikandan, Sivashanmugham, Sathish, Ajish, John, Vinod, Elangovan, Ravichandran, Keshav, Kamalakannan, Murugan, Balaji, Palani Janrdhanam, Ramaiya and Muthukumaran who did the allotted work at Airport/Railway Station/Hotels deserve all round appreciation.

Com M Naveen Kumar was at the Airport to handle the situation in a flawless manner. The young comrade U Mohanasundar (Treasurer, Tamilnadu State Committee) was ever available at Hotel and Railway Station monitoring the entire accommodation. Despite sleepless nights, both were always cheerful throughout. Our appreciations to Com Naveen and Com Mohan.

ATHITHI DEVO BHAVA

The team welcomed every leader, past and present, guests and participants with dignity laced with love and affection. Tamilnadu comrades proved that welcoming a guest is their duty rather than a courtesy. Everyone was embraced with warmth and reverence. At every place, Railway Station, Airport, Hotel, Venue and Dining, hospitality was at its best. It was an exhibition of tireless execution from start to finish. They made hospitality a heritage.

STAGE

Stage and events were managed by a team of women comrades led Com K Muthulakshmi, CC Member, CBEU. The seamless co-ordination of the women volunteers helped the President and General Secretary to conduct the proceedings in a disciplined manner without any time delay. It was a display of professionalism by the women comrades, even though they were not given any training for that. The agenda flowed like a river, unbroken and purposeful. We place on record our deep appreciation to Comrades Chitra, Lakshmi Mohanavalli, Sheeba Priyadarshini, Deepa, Visharadha, Preethi Kumar, Vijayalakshmi, Malleswary, Amudhavalli and Uma Maheswari.

THE UNSEEN AND UNSUNG HEROES

Volunteers are the silent architects of the success of this mega event. Many comrades have laboured without limelight and served without any applause. As many were assigned with duties at different hotels, airport and railway station, only a few could be seen at the venues. The might of CBEU rests on the shoulders of such unseen and unsung heroes.

Com S Rajasekaran, Former CC Member and presently an office bearer of CBRF/AIBRF was at the venue throughout the night of 9th May to oversee the fitting of boards and banners in the venue as also the stage decoration. We bow our head to his love and loyalty towards our movement.

Comrades, the CC Members from Tamilnadu, Com S Nagarajan, Com P Sakthivel, Com S Shunmugasundaram, Com J Ananthapadmanabhan, Com V S Navin Kumar worked overtime for the success of the events. The role of Com G Sivakumar, CC Member from Chennai deserve special mention in maintaining the discipline and decorum inside the hall during the proceedings.

The efforts of Com S Vinoth, our CC Member from Chennai who was the architect behind the designing of the Arch, Gate, Boards and Stage is deeply appreciated.

Com K Gautham, Deputy General Secretary carried out the tasks entrusted with ease - be it the secretarial work or overseeing the stage during conduct of the programmes. Kudos to him.

The untiring efforts of Com S Ramakrishnan, Treasurer in booking hotels, managing and procuring the things for the entire four-day affair - right from Safety Pin to Gifts/Mementos is placed on record. We appreciate for his continuous follow-up which resulted in the success of the event.

Our sincere thanks to Com K Srikrishna, Former General Secretary CBEU and Treasurer, AIBEa for his guidance.

Words fail to appreciate the dedicated work of Staff of Central Office.

Last but not the least, the co-ordinating efforts of Com R Karthik, Joint General Secretary and State Secretary turned the event into a luminous page in the proud history of our movement. The team under his leadership proved that, "Excellence is never an accident. It is the result of sincere efforts and skilful execution."

The rich legacy of CBEU have produced innumerable number of young leaders - men and women. This was an occasion for everyone of them to rise as one. And they all proved they are second to none.

We, with overflowing pride and abiding gratitude, salute every comrade of Tamilnadu for the success of the Valedictory Function of our Platinum Jubilee Celebrations. The yearlong celebrations came to a conclusion without any hiccups. May this milestone be yet another foundation for greater glories to come.

With greetings

(B RAMPRAKASH)
GENERAL SECRETARY
