Dear Comrades,

30TH CONFERENCE OF AIBEA NEW TEAM ELECTED A MOMENT OF PRIDE FOR CBEU

The 30th Conference of AIBEA, convened from 19th to 22nd April 2026 at Bengaluru, had to be adjourned sine die on 22.04.2026 owing to unforeseen and disruptive circumstances.

The adjourned Delegate Session was reconvened on 10th June 2026 at the same venue. Under robust security arrangements, the proceedings were conducted with utmost discipline and order.

Following the adoption of the General Secretary's report, resolutions, and amendments, the House proceeded to the election of Office Bearers.

In accordance with the decision of the AIBEA Office Bearers' Meeting held on 20.05.2026, and at the request of a section of delegates, the elections were conducted through secret ballot.

The House unanimously approved the Election Commission comprising Com. D.D. Rustagi, Com. C.D. Josson, and Com. B.S.R. Mohan Reddy. Post nomination and meticulous scrutiny, the final list of candidates was published.

Polling commenced at 7:00 PM on 10.06.2026 and concluded at 1:00 AM on 11.06.2026. A total of 1,028 delegates exercised their votes for the seven posts totalling 20 in number with unwavering commitment. Counting commenced at 3:00 AM, conducted post-wise, and culminated in five hours. The final list of elected Office Bearers was declared at 8:30 AM on 11.06.2026.

We salute every delegate whose patience and steadfastness transformed this challenging process into a resounding affirmation of our organizational unity.

This is a recognition to the contributions made by our members throughout the country working for State Federations and CBEU. It is a moment of immense pride and honour for CBEU and for every State Federation we represent.

For the first time since 1953, Office Bearers have been elected through secret ballot during a Conference.

Notwithstanding attempts to prolong the process by a few, the election stood as a shining example of transparency, democracy, and collective resolve.

The exemplary conduct of delegates, who stood firm and cast their votes well past midnight, has etched a new chapter of discipline and unity in the annals of our movement.

This conference reaffirmed a timeless truth that the organisation is supreme, and no individual stands above the Union.

SALUTATIONS TO TEAM AIBEA KARNATAKA

Words can scarcely capture the dedication of the volunteers of Karnataka Pradesh Bank Employees' Federation, led with exemplary resolve by Com. M.S. Srinivasan, President, and Com. M. Jayanath, General Secretary. With stoic patience they handled every provocation. For over 30 hours they stood vigil, safeguarding the sanctity of our organization and ensuring an impeccable election process. Our deepest gratitude and reverence to each one of them.

SALUTES TO LEADERS

A few leaders relinquished their post as per the decisions of respective State Federations, paving way for youngsters to take the mantle. We place on record our greetings to all those leaders. Our thanks to Com K Srikrishna, Former Treasurer, AIBEA and our former General Secretary for his help and support to us.

LONG LIVE AIBEA

AIBEA is not merely a union. It is a movement. Our struggles transcend service conditions. From the battle for nationalisation to the fight against private capital and willful defaults, AIBEA's vision has always been larger than any other trade union. We all should feel proud to be members of AIBEA.

The position that is bestowed on us is not a privilege, but a profound responsibility. United, let us carry this mantle and elevate AIBEA and CBEU to much greater heights.

CBEU wishes all the best to the Team of Office Bearers. Let us work together with great resolve and unity for TOTAL UNIFICATION.

With greetings

B RAMPRAKASH
GENERAL SECRETARY
